

What Women Are Doing in the World

Club Calendar. SUNDAY—Vesper service, Young Women's Christian association, 4:30 p. m. Easter services conducted by Omaha union of the Women's Christian Temperance union at Old People's home and county jail.

MONDAY—Omaha Woman's club election of officers, executive meeting, 1:15; directory, 1:30; business meeting, 2:30 p. m.; "Backward party," Young Women's Christian association.

TUESDAY—Prairie Park Needlecraft club, guest day; literature department, South Omaha Woman's club, Mrs. E. R. Leigh, leader; cratory department, Woman's club; Monmouth Park Mothers' club, Miss Esther Johnson, speaker.

WEDNESDAY—Mu Sigma club, Mrs. A. C. Davenport and Mrs. S. G. Lund, hostesses; Mothers' Culture club, Mrs. J. H. Craddock and Mrs. C. N. Sisco, hostesses; Wyoche Story Tellers' league, public library; Woman's club, Railway Mail Service, Mrs. Edwin Cole, hostess; Omaha Suffrage association, Mrs. D. G. Craighead, hostess; Store Teller's section, A. A. Miss Margaret Guthrie, hostess; literature department, Women's club, Mrs. E. R. Leigh, leader.

THURSDAY—Opening of "Low Cost of Living" show; Omaha Story Tellers' league, public library; Omaha Society of Fine Arts, Mrs. Vera Millard, leader; P. E. O. Sisterhood, Mrs. George Lehnhoff, hostess; Emma Woodland "Home Mission" launched; economics department, Woman's club, election of officers.

FRIDAY—Mothers' culture department, South Omaha Woman's club, visit to Linger art gallery; French department, Woman's club, election; Anti-Suffrage society meeting, Mrs. L. P. Crofoot, hostess; Barbara Wait, concert; Young Women's Christian association.

SATURDAY—Drama section, Association of Collegiate Alumnae, literary exercises, Brownell Hall, benefit Social settlement.

ELECTION of officers for the next year, both in the club proper and the various departments of the Omaha Woman's club, and delegates to the national convention in June, the state meeting in October and the district meeting, to be held in Papillion the latter part of this month, is of paramount importance this week.

The following tellers have been appointed to act at the election of officers and delegates, Monday afternoon: Mrs. Edward Phelan, chairman; Mesdames L. J. Healey, I. M. Lord, B. W. Jewell, C. H. Chisman, J. C. Hammond, Edgar Allen, T. L. Coon, S. F. Porter, George A. Magrney, T. R. Ward, George A. Sammis, T. F. Stroud and James Liddell.

The household economics department will elect officers Thursday morning and the French department on Friday morning.

Important business will also be transacted at the meeting of the club, Monday, Mrs. D. G. Craighead, Mrs. J. C. Hammond and Mrs. Edgar Allen, the committee appointed to confer with the Commercial club with regard to more rigid enforcement of the anti-vice and the cigarette ordinances, will report, as will the club rooms committee. The recommendation of the social science department, with reference to the playgrounds fund will also be considered.

The executive meeting will be called promptly at 1:15, the directory at 1:30 and the business meeting promptly at 2:30 o'clock.

The story tellers' section of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will hold a special program and social hour at the home of Miss Margaret Guthrie on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The department, which has been studying folklore for the last year, will present a program of folk dancing and song. Mrs. Stephen Davis is leader of the department.

The household economics department of the Omaha Woman's club will hold election of officers at the meeting on Thursday morning. Following this, the members will adjourn to the Auditorium, where the department will conduct a bureau of household efficiency during the Low-Cost-of-Living show. Members of this department will be on duty at the booth every day during the show.

The Monmouth Park Mother's club will meet Tuesday at the Monmouth Park school, Miss Esther Johnson, of the juvenile court, will be the speaker. Business of importance will be transacted.

Tuesday will be guest day at the Prairie Park Needlecraft club, each member being privileged to bring one guest. The following program will be rendered: Vocal solo, Mrs. C. C. Cope, Jr.; piano solo, Miss Wilma Bruce; vocal solo, Miss Amy Silver; piano duet, Miss Kathryn Smith and Miss Ethel Weidner; recitation, Miss Winifred Travis. A social hour will follow the program.

The Central Park Mothers' club met on Friday afternoon at that school, Mrs. W. G. Ure spoke on "Furty in Art," and Miss Grace Sorenson, editor of Every Child's magazine, explained the objects of Every Child's club, which she has organized in connection with the magazine. Miss Sorenson also read some of her "Home-Made Jingles." Violin solos were rendered by Earl Stirling.

Mrs. C. H. Mullen is leader of the program for the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club, Wednesday morning. Mrs. G. A. Sammis will give a biography of Galworthy; Mrs. Frank W. Johnson will tell the story of "The Pigeon," and Mrs. John O. Keiser will give a critical analysis of the drama.

Mrs. J. H. Craddock and Mrs. C. N. Sisco will be hostess for the Mothers' Culture club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Craddock. Mrs. J. C. Buffington will have a paper on "Children Should Be Allowed to Follow Their Own Bent Without Interference," which will be followed by a discussion of the subject, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Mick. Mrs. W. J. Sams will give items of current interest and roll call will be responded to with illustrations from the lives of Edison, Burbank and Cyrus Field.

Mu Sigma club's last meeting for the year will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Davenport, Mrs. S. G. Lund being assistant hostess. Mrs. E. R. Towne will give a resume of the year's work, which included Macaulay, Carlyle, Thackeray, Dickens and Tennyson. The business meeting and election of officers will be followed by a social hour and banqueting.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. R. Gilbert. Musical numbers will be given by club members and roll call responded to by Bible quotations. Mrs. G. Z. Begorow will have a paper on the "Importance of the World Story of Jerusalem." Mrs. E. O. Ames, "Building of Jerusalem;" Mrs. E. O. Carson, "Fall of Jerusalem;" Mrs. Gilbert, "In and Out of

Three Popular Girls Announce Their Engagements to Wed

Miss Irene Shepard

Miss Olive Hammond

Miss Leila Osterberg

Jerusalem." Dr. Della Lynch will have as her topic "Conditions of Modern Syria" and Miss Maud Roys will give a reading.

The literature department of the South Omaha Woman's club meets Tuesday at Library hall. The program is on "Francis Marion Crawford," under the leadership of Mrs. E. R. Leigh. Mrs. Richard Laverty will give a biography of the author and Mrs. Leigh a review of his works, "Saracinesca," "San Ilario," and "Don Orsino," with special emphasis on the first work.

The mothers' culture department of the South Omaha Woman's club will visit the Linger art gallery Friday afternoon and will discuss "The Use of Good Pictures for Children."

"British Empire Painting" will be the subject of study for the Omaha Society of Fine Arts Thursday morning, under the leadership of Mrs. Vera Millard. Exponents of Irish, Scotch and Canadian painting will be presented, Miss Laura Scott having a paper on William Orpen, Mrs. O. D. Williams a paper on Sir George Reid and Mrs. Willard on J. W. Morrice and Maurice Cullen.

The Omaha Story Tellers' league meets Thursday afternoon, under the leadership of Mrs. William H. Dox. "The Quest of the Holy Grail" will be told by Mrs. J. W. Metcalf, "Pursuit of Dermot and Grania" by Miss Josephine Grant and "The Lost Word" by Mrs. Dox. A business meeting will precede the program.

The Wyoche Story Tellers' league meets Wednesday afternoon at the public library. Stories will be told by Miss Margaret Delapach, Mrs. R. F. Colvin, Miss Eliza Gibbs and Miss Mayme Hutchinson.

The P. E. O. sisterhood will be entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Lehnhoff Thursday afternoon. This will be guest day, each member being privileged to bring one guest. The assisting hostesses will be

The Dramatic club of the Social Settlement will present Shakespeare's "The

Mrs. R. B. Zachary, Mrs. Charles George and Mrs. C. Cox.

The Woman's club of the Railway Mail Service will meet at the home of Mrs. Edwin Cole Wednesday afternoon. Roll call will be responded to with current events. Mrs. W. P. East, leader of the program, will give a talk on "Civil Service Reform," as will Mrs. F. H. Cole; Mrs. H. M. Blackwell on "The Peace Movement" and Mrs. R. L. Frantz on "Vocational Training." Miss Garnet Nelson and Miss Winifred Travis will give readings.

Mrs. D. G. Craighead will entertain the Omaha Suffrage association at tea at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George Covell will speak on "What Women Have Done With the Vote" and Mrs. Craighead will read "The Woman of Tomorrow." Musical selections will be rendered by Miss Clarice Long and Mrs. C. R. Lander and Clifford Long will give a reading.

The Omaha union of the Women's Christian Temperance union will conduct Easter services at the Old People's home from 3 to 4 o'clock this afternoon; also, a song service at the county jail, under the direction of Mrs. A. Ahlquist. Mrs. Edith Shirock will take charge of the dramatic oratorical contest classes to be held at the City mission. The union, at the request of Mrs. D. G. Craighead and Mrs. W. D. Sunderland, will appoint workers for the suffrage campaign. Letters have been sent to Charles G. Fullerton and Henry D. Clayton of the senate and house judiciary committees, favoring the Hobson prohibition amendment, which comes before them April 15 and 16.

The French class of the Omaha Woman's club will hold its annual election of officers Friday, immediately following the lesson.

The Dramatic club of the Social Settlement will present Shakespeare's "The Tempest" at the Brandeis theater, Saturday evening, April 25. The performance is given under the direction of Miss Mary Wallace and is for the benefit of the summer vacation camp maintained by the Social Settlement.

Mrs. Harry L. Keefe of Walthill, Neb., will participate in the discussion on "How to Bring the Influence of Beauty and Art to the Children of America," which will be held under the auspices of the art department at the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs in Chicago June 9-15.

Mrs. R. E. McKelvey, whose declination of the nomination for president of the Omaha Woman's club was announced last week, is confined to her home by an attack of bronchitis.

Y. W. C. A. Notes. The Easter vesper service at the Young Women's Christian association will be addressed by Miss Lora Hager, religious work secretary, on Tennyson's Easter poem, "Gareth and Lynette." There will be special music by Dr. Laird, cornetist, and Miss Robbing, soprano. Following the service will be the usual social hour, at which Miss Chambers will be hostess. The April association party will be given Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. It will be a "backward party," under the auspices of the "Tip-Top" club. All young women are invited to attend. Friday evening, April 17, 8:15, the last number of the entertainment course will be given by Barbara Wait, contralto, assisted by Henry Cox.

Invitations have been issued to a "Summer Hill Farm Reunion" at which the guests of last summer at the association summer home will be entertained, Monday evening, April 20. As many of the "stunts" of farm days as possible will be repeated.

The story of Robin Hood was told to the Fellowship and Business girls' clubs of the Young Women's Christian association Tuesday and Thursday evenings by Miss Grace Miner, one of Omaha's "Robin Hood" stories to chautauques, audiences from Illinois to the Pacific coast.

Sixteenth Annual Meeting of State Charities Here Soon

The program for the sixteenth annual meeting of the Nebraska Conference of Charities and Corrections, which will be held in this city April 26, 27 and 28, has just been issued.

The state board which is in charge of this meeting includes Judge Howard Kennedy of Lincoln, president; Miss Louise McPherson, Omaha, secretary; Mrs. F. H. Cole, Omaha, first vice president; Miss Ida L. Robbins, Lincoln, second vice president, and Miss Annie C. Kramph, North Platte, treasurer.

Following is the program for the conference: SUNDAY, APRIL 26. Mass meeting, council chamber, city hall, 2:30 p. m.; Judge Howard Kennedy presiding.

Mrs. C. H. Mullen is leader of the program for the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club, Wednesday morning. Mrs. G. A. Sammis will give a biography of Galworthy; Mrs. Frank W. Johnson will tell the story of "The Pigeon," and Mrs. John O. Keiser will give a critical analysis of the drama.

Mrs. J. H. Craddock and Mrs. C. N. Sisco will be hostess for the Mothers' Culture club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Craddock. Mrs. J. C. Buffington will have a paper on "Children Should Be Allowed to Follow Their Own Bent Without Interference," which will be followed by a discussion of the subject, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Mick. Mrs. W. J. Sams will give items of current interest and roll call will be responded to with illustrations from the lives of Edison, Burbank and Cyrus Field.

Mu Sigma club's last meeting for the year will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Davenport, Mrs. S. G. Lund being assistant hostess. Mrs. E. R. Towne will give a resume of the year's work, which included Macaulay, Carlyle, Thackeray, Dickens and Tennyson. The business meeting and election of officers will be followed by a social hour and banqueting.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. R. Gilbert. Musical numbers will be given by club members and roll call responded to by Bible quotations. Mrs. G. Z. Begorow will have a paper on the "Importance of the World Story of Jerusalem." Mrs. E. O. Ames, "Building of Jerusalem;" Mrs. E. O. Carson, "Fall of Jerusalem;" Mrs. Gilbert, "In and Out of

Recent Bride Now Omaha Matron

Mrs. Carrol Reed Belden

Sixteenth Annual Meeting of State Charities Here Soon

The program for the sixteenth annual meeting of the Nebraska Conference of Charities and Corrections, which will be held in this city April 26, 27 and 28, has just been issued.

The state board which is in charge of this meeting includes Judge Howard Kennedy of Lincoln, president; Miss Louise McPherson, Omaha, secretary; Mrs. F. H. Cole, Omaha, first vice president; Miss Ida L. Robbins, Lincoln, second vice president, and Miss Annie C. Kramph, North Platte, treasurer.

Following is the program for the conference: SUNDAY, APRIL 26. Mass meeting, council chamber, city hall, 2:30 p. m.; Judge Howard Kennedy presiding.

Mrs. C. H. Mullen is leader of the program for the literature department of the Omaha Woman's club, Wednesday morning. Mrs. G. A. Sammis will give a biography of Galworthy; Mrs. Frank W. Johnson will tell the story of "The Pigeon," and Mrs. John O. Keiser will give a critical analysis of the drama.

Mrs. J. H. Craddock and Mrs. C. N. Sisco will be hostess for the Mothers' Culture club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Craddock. Mrs. J. C. Buffington will have a paper on "Children Should Be Allowed to Follow Their Own Bent Without Interference," which will be followed by a discussion of the subject, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Mick. Mrs. W. J. Sams will give items of current interest and roll call will be responded to with illustrations from the lives of Edison, Burbank and Cyrus Field.

Mu Sigma club's last meeting for the year will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. C. Davenport, Mrs. S. G. Lund being assistant hostess. Mrs. E. R. Towne will give a resume of the year's work, which included Macaulay, Carlyle, Thackeray, Dickens and Tennyson. The business meeting and election of officers will be followed by a social hour and banqueting.

The North Side Mothers' club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. R. Gilbert. Musical numbers will be given by club members and roll call responded to by Bible quotations. Mrs. G. Z. Begorow will have a paper on the "Importance of the World Story of Jerusalem." Mrs. E. O. Ames, "Building of Jerusalem;" Mrs. E. O. Carson, "Fall of Jerusalem;" Mrs. Gilbert, "In and Out of

Announcement

V. P. Chiodo, the Ladies' Tailor and Dressmaker, will, after Easter rush, reduce on all his original tailor-made Suits and Gowns for all occasions, 20% less than the regular prices. This sale will continue during the remainder of the Spring season.

I wish to thank you for all patronage and courtesy that has been extended me and made my business in Omaha a success for the last 22 years.

Parlor 206 Baird Building
Seventeenth and Douglas

2:00—Address, "Mental Hygiene," Dr. G. A. Young, Omaha.
2:30—Address, "Care of Feeble-Minded," Dr. W. J. East, Beatrice, Neb.
3:00—Address, "The Drug Habit and Inebriety," Dr. M. W. Baxter, Hastings, Neb.
3:30—Address, "The Need of a Psychopathic Hospital," Dr. H. R. Carson, Norfolk, Neb.
4:00—Address, "Hydrotherapy," Dr. H. Williams, Lincoln, Neb.
4:30—Address, Table, led by Dr. J. M. Akin, Omaha.
5:00—Conference with Dr. Katherine Bennett Davis, Judge Howard Kennedy presiding.

Meeting in council chamber, city hall, 18th and Franklin, Mrs. F. H. Cole, Omaha, first vice president, presiding.
7:00—Illustrated talk, "Tornado Reconstruction Work in Omaha," E. V. Parrish, bureau of publicity, Omaha.
8:00—Address, W. J. Springhorn, Cleveland, O.
8:30—Address, "Administration of Correctional Institutions," Dr. Katherine Bennett Davis, New York City.

Meeting in Jacobs hall.
8:00—Business session.
9:00—Address, "Our Jails," W. J. Springhorn, Cleveland, O.
Discussion, J. W. Shaban, secretary of State Board of Charities, Lincoln, Neb.; A. C. Kugel, police commissioner, Omaha; Dr. Harold Gifford, Omaha.

5:45—Round Table for sheriffs, wardens and county commissioners, conducted by James Fenton, warden, Nebraska penitentiary.
9:30—Address, "Classification of Offenders," Dr. Katherine Bennett Davis, New York City.

AFTERNOON.
Meeting at school for Deaf.
2:00—Address, "Libraries in State Institutions," Miss Florence Waugh, Lincoln, Neb.

2:30—Exhibition oral work, F. W. Booth, superintendent School for Deaf.
3:00—Business meeting. Election of officers. Selection next meeting place. Committee reports.
4:00—Folk dancing.

Parlor Furniture

Living Room Furniture

Dining Room Furniture

Bed Room Furniture

Porch Furniture

Everything for the Kitchen

Domestic Rugs

Gigantic Sale!

Furniture, Rugs and Draperies
Commencing Monday, April 13th

MONDAY morning will mark the beginning of a sale which will surpass anything of the kind ever attempted by a furniture store in Omaha.

Many styles and varieties of every article used in the modern home will be displayed at prices so low as to be astounding.

You have heard of sales before, but none like this one.

BEATON & LAIER CO.
415-17 South Sixteenth Street
PAYMENTS IF YOU WISH

Oriental Rugs

Linoleums

Everything in Draperies

Curtains and Tapestries

Vacuum Cleaners and Carpet Sweepers

Washing Machines, Fireless Cookers, Stoves & Ranges, Sewing Machines, Kitchen Cabinets, Refrigerators

Office Furniture

Wall Paper

Shades and Rollers

MODERN DANCES

A'LA CASTLE HOUSE MUSIC

NOT IN NEW YORK
But With the Victrola
IN YOUR OWN HOME

The Tango and Hesitation are most enjoyed when danced to the perfect rhythm and time of Castle House Music.

The VICTROLA, at a moment's notice, will supply this music, so indispensable for Home Dancing. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle, foremost authorities in America on the new dances, supervise the making of VICTOR DANCE RECORDS exclusively.

You'll find dancing to this splendid music a real delight, and with a VICTROLA in your home it is a pleasure you can indulge in whenever and as often as you please.

THESE ARE THE POPULAR RECORDS

Hesitation—35361 Adele Waitzes
35347 Hydrotan
35346 Isle D'amour
Tango—35359—Too Much Mustard
17466—Santley Tango
17526—Brazilian Dream

We will gladly play dance records for you. Our stock is complete. Stop in any time and we will explain, too, how you can easily have a Victrola in YOUR HOME.

A. HOSPE CO. 1513 Douglas St.
"THE VICTOR STORE"

AFTERNOON.
Meeting at Jacobs' Memorial hall.